

1. These charts show the structures of the United States government and the Kentucky government.

Based on these charts, which statement is true?

- A Kentucky's government is similar to the United States government.
  - B Kentucky's government is a monarchy.
  - C Kentucky's government is very different from the United States government.
  - D Kentucky's government is a dictatorship.
2. What happens to the price of a good if its demand increases?
- A The price becomes more stable.
  - B The price increases.
  - C The price decreases.
  - D The price remains the same.

- 3. This is a quote from a collection of Kentucky state histories written by John Warner Barber.

In 1767, John Findley and some others made a trading expedition from North Carolina to this region. In 1769, Daniel Boone...undertook a journey to explore the country. After a long [tiring] march over a mountainous wilderness, they arrived upon its borders, and from a [cliff] discovered the beautiful valley of Kentucky.

Based on this quote, Daniel Boone had to travel through which geographical feature to enter Kentucky?

- A Appalachian Mountains
  - B Mississippi River
  - C Mojave Desert
  - D Rocky Mountains
- 4. This chart describes four different acts passed by the British government before the American Revolution.

A	B	C	D
a package of five laws that closed the Boston Harbor and increased British control over colonial governments	placed a tax on most paper goods, including playing cards, newspapers, and legal documents	forced the American colonies to purchase goods from the East India Company	a series of laws that increased taxes on paint, lead, and glass and gave British officials the right to search colonists' houses

Which is described in column A?

- A Coercive (Intolerable) Acts
  - B Stamp Act
  - C Tea Act
  - D Townshend Acts
- 5. Who were authors of the Declaration of Independence?

Select three that apply.

- A John Adams
- B Benjamin Franklin
- C Patrick Henry
- D Thomas Jefferson
- E Paul Revere